

Building Communities

April 2024

A Catalyst for Sustainable Social and Economic Development Since 1928

At the Social Planning Council of Ottawa, our mission is deeply rooted in supporting our communities across Ottawa. Through various ongoing community engagement projects, we strive to uplift underserved families and vulnerable populations throughout our region. Whether it's through providing access to essential resources, advocating for equitable policies, or fostering collaboration among local stakeholders, our organization is dedicated to making a positive impact in the lives of those we serve.

SPCO Social Impact Month

Building Resilient Communities:

Welcome to SPCO's first Social Impact Month - May 1st to 31st, 2024. The SPCO's Social Impact Month is a month-long initiative dedicated to highlighting the critical role social services organizations play in promoting community well-being and resilience - 365 days a year.

Through a series of engaging events and activities, we aim to highlight the essential work of social service organizations, reflect on the profound impact our collective actions have on individuals lives, and inspire continued commitment to upliftment, empowerment, and positive community change. This is a moment to reaffirm our commitment to addressing social challenges, reducing inequalities, and strengthening our efforts towards a sustainable and inclusive future.

If you're interested in participating in any capacity, we'd be delighted to talk to you. Reach us at office@spcottawa.on.ca

G7

G7 – Grassroots Ethno-cultural Groups Collective Impact works with the SPCO, as a catalyst for sustainable social and economic development, to develop “an equitable delivery model with those most affected to address systemic barriers to equitable outcomes”.

By focusing on key program areas and issues, G7 members respond to key needs and gaps identified by the Black and racialized community in Ottawa, and by the network of local grassroots supporting them.

Make A Positive Community Impact

As our community's needs evolve, we remain committed to improving the quality of life for all. And your support helps make it possible.
