

Announcing: Meet Your Candidates

A Community Dialogue Series

Ottawa, ON – April 4th – As election season approaches, the Social Planning Council of Ottawa (SPCO) is proud to present Meet Your Candidate: A Community Dialogue Series, a four-part debate series designed to engage voters and provide direct access to candidates running for office.

This series offers residents—especially first-time voters—an opportunity to hear directly from candidates on key issues, ask their own questions, and engage in meaningful discussions about the future of their communities. The event schedule for each riding is as follows...

Event Schedule:

- April 12th – Ottawa South
- April 15th – Ottawa Vanier
- April 22nd – Kanata
- April 23rd – Ottawa Centre

Each session will provide a platform for candidates to discuss pressing local concerns while allowing community members to voice their questions and priorities. This initiative is part of #CivicEngagementMonth, reinforcing the importance of informed voting and active participation in democracy.

What to Expect:

- ✓ Hear directly from candidates on the issues that matter most to you.
- ✓ Ask questions and be part of the conversation.
- ✓ Engage with community leaders and learn how policies impact your neighborhood.

Don't miss out on this essential event! Follow SPCO on social media for location details and updates.

-30-

For media inquiries or interviews, please contact:

Sean Murdock

Events Coordinator

Sean.m@spcottawa.on.ca

Reuben Nashali

Executive Director

reuben@spcottawa.on.ca